The Swedish Pavilion
Pavilion Program

Inauguration of the Swedish Pavilion

The inauguration marks the official opening of the Swedish Pavilion at BIO International, with a ribbon-cutting, welcoming remarks and a moment to gather with Swedish and international partners before the convention begins.

Exhibitor Reception

The Swedish Pavilion's Exhibitor Reception showcases Swedish culture alongside the strength of Sweden's life sciences industry in a relaxed, high-quality networking environment.

International Panels & Meet-ups

The Swedish Pavilion features a curated program of panels and meet-ups, addressing key life sciences topics while facilitating new conversations and collaborations across borders.

Philadelphia Site Visits

Site visits offer an inside look at Philadelphia's life sciences ecosystem, known for breakthroughs in cell and gene therapy and mRNA, and a chance to connect with institutions and companies beyond the show floor.

Note: The program is preliminary and subject to change.

The Swedish Pavilion at BIO International 2026. In 2026, the Swedish Pavilion featured six panels and meet-ups, an inauguration by the Consul General of Sweden in San Francisco, Cecilia Ekholm, site visits to Illumina's headquarters and BioLabs San Diego, and an unforgettable Midsummer Celebration with Swedish food, music, and dancing around the maypole.

The Swedish Pavilion
Layout & Orientation

As an Exhibitor at the Swedish Pavilion, the company gets its own dedicated, company-branded space
– providing a reserved space for partnering meetings and drop-ins with premium visibility throughout the show.

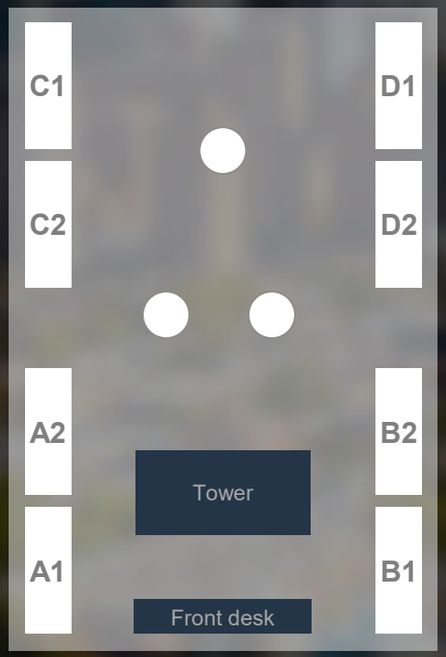

Note: Layout is preliminary and subject to change
